

HOPE FOR OUR CHILDREN

Hope for our Children is a Courts community service project in association with The National Cancer Society Malaysia. This project aims to engender understanding that healthy lifestyle habits adopted early in life can make a positive difference in reducing the risk of cancer later in life.

NCSM

The National Cancer Society of Malaysia (NCSM)

is a registered tax-exempt charity body established in 1966. It is the first cancer-related NGO in Malaysia, and the only charity body that provides an extensive range of cancer services, treatment and support for people affected by cancer. It is through your generosity that makes our work possible.

You matter!

WALK WITH US AND JOIN OUR FIGHT AGAINST CANCER!

Come and participate with your family and friends and enjoy a day of healthy outdoor exercise at our Walk of Hope walkathon. It's good fun and there are loads of prizes for everyone! Goodie bags for all participants and mystery gifts for the first 100 participants turning up on the day. Plus, prizes to be won in our Lucky Draw! What's more, you are doing all this for a good cause!

"Support from friends and family is crucial but it is also important to have a positive mindset and not give up easily."

Kiew Wai Keong, father of Kiew Sue Fey, kidney cancer survivor

"I could not leave my young children behind. I derive my strength from them and vowed never to return to the oncology ward."

Yasogee Pechumutu, breast cancer survivor
